Star Wars Movie Series in Chronological Order

by CountRonin | created - 30 May 2017 | updated - 1 month ago | Public

I averaged the ratings (of the titles that are actually out):
7.1 stars out of 518,983

Just updated today (May 25, 2018) to get Rogue One and Solo in the right order and add Episode 9

Just updated today (May 26, 2018) to add the Ewok movies and Revelations, and to add the genres and ratings. I also deleted some of my comment responses

Just updated June 5, 2018 to put a note on Revelations that says "unofficial", and to put Solo in the right place... again

Updated August 31, 2018 to put the Ewok movies in the right order

Since I have yet to recover my Facebook account, I will post my comment responses here:
*Star Wars Rebels will never be on this particular list because it is a show, not a movie
*Caravan of Courage was a back-up plan George Lucas had if Star Wars was not successful. But it was successful so Empire Strikes Back was released instead. Wait, never mind. Just found out that I was thinking of something completely different. Caravan of Courage, as it turns out, is an Ewok movie
*Star Wars Droids will also never be on this particular list for the same reason why Star Wars Rebels will never be on this list
*"Get off the interwebs"? This is a list of the full Star Wars movie series. I have to include everything. Even the only 3 that are considered bad. The only movies on this list that I have not seen are The Holiday Special, The Ewok Adventure (a.k.a. Caravan of Courage), Battle for Endor, and Revelations
*Okay yes I know that Revelations is not canon but there was also a comment that said "Where is Revelations" or something like that. I could put a note on it that says "Unofficial"

"Solo" is very interesting. but you cannot place it in any real order. the problem is with the characters in the movie. this is because in the beginning it was after episode 3 clone wars. however in the end of the movie "solo" Darth maul appears in a holographic projection which throws everything off. if you know star wars and have watched them all like i have, then you would know that before the clone wars started there was a trade war and the empire wasnt even formed. and also darth maul was killed by obi wan kenobi. so the movie is messed up in its own timeline and cannot actually be placed into a sequence.

@John Mcclenitha If you know Star Wars like you think you do, you would know that the Clone Wars are canon, and that Darth Maul survived being cut in half by focusing on his hatred of Obi-wan. He was dumped on the junk planet, Lotho Minor and lived on a diet of vermon. Also in Solo, you can see that Darth Maul has a robotic bottom half similar to that of Darth Vader. Made by the Empire, which was formed in Revenge of the sith, Order 66. I think I know exactly where this movie is placed in the timeline.

it is not that hard to place its after revenge of the sith, you can see star destroyers being made. and it has to be before episode IV because han solo is joung

if maul is in the han solo film, surely it comes before episode three or the clone wars? as maul dies in the clone wars?
